CIVIL ACTION NO.

ORDER

This is a writ of habeas corpus case filed by a state inmate pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254. The Magistrate Judge filed her Findings and Conclusions on September 29, 2006. Respondent filed objections on October 3, 2006 objecting to the magistrate judge's failure to rule on his defense that this petition is time-barred. The magistrate judge made no ruling on the timeliness of the petition but instead proceeded directly to the merits of the claims. Petitioner filed no objections to the magistrate judge's report, nor did he file a response to respondent's objections.

After review of the file, the magistrate judge's report, and respondent's objections, the court overrules respondent's objections. The issue of whether a habeas petition is time-barred is not a jurisdictional issue, but rather is a defense. Davis v. Johnson, 158 F.3d 806,811 (5th Cir. 1998). Respondent cites no authority which requires that limitations defenses be resolved ahead of other issues. Hence, the court finds no error on the part of the magistrate judge in deciding the claims on the merits rather than deciding the timeliness issue.¹

After reviewing all the relevant matters of record in this case, including the Findings, Conclusions, and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge and respondent's objections, the court accepts the Findings, Conclusions, and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge and adopts them as the findings of this court.

Signed this 16th day of October 2006.

JORGE A. SOLIS
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

¹ Respondent states he is filing the objections to preserve the issue for appeal. However, the magistrate judge made no findings, conclusions or recommendations regarding the limitations issue. Thus, this court treats respondent's objections as objecting to the magistrate judge's failure to rule on the limitations defense.
